Sexual Offences

Representative Cases

- R v BF (Newcastle Crown Court) - Attempted rape of a child under 13 years and other sexual offences

This case involved the attempted rape and other penetrative sexual offences against an 11 year old girl. BF also committed penetrative sexual offences against her 12 year old sister.

Following the disclosure of further relevant material at the pre-recording of the cross-examination, the Judge expressed that Fiona had "dealt with it exceptionally and with a very cool head".

BF has previous convictions for sexually abusing two close family members, including his half sister when she was 6 years old. These convictions went before the jury.

BF was unanimously convicted of 5 counts. He was acquitted of Rape.

Fiona was praised for her professionalism throughout the case. She was further praised by the Judge for her "careful, detailed and commendable written submissions" submitted for the sentencing hearing.

BF was sentenced to 33 years custody made up of a custodial element of 27 years and 6 years extended sentence

- R v RM (Newcastle Crown Court) - Rape of a child under 13 years and other sexual offences

This case involved the prolonged sexual abuse and rape of a 5 year old girl by RM who was 50 years old at the time. He pleaded guilty to 5/11 counts on the indictment, including perverting the course of justice, and had a trial on the remaining counts which all involved penetrative sexual activity and rape. He was convicted unanimously of all counts.

The case was prosecuted by King's Counsel. Fiona was praised for dealing with the case with "great sensitivity, care and skill".

RM received a custodial sentence of 22 years, plus 1 years extended licence.

- R v ACK (Durham Crown Court) – Rape of a child under 13 years and other sexual offences

The case involved rape and other sexual offences of a male child under 13 years (between 7-9 years) and ACK who was then aged between 15-17 years. The complaint had been made 25 years later. ACK was convicted after trial of all counts on the indictment. He was sentenced to 12 years imprisonment.

Leave to appeal was subsequently granted. The Court of Appeal reduced AKC's sentence to 9 years imprisonment.

- R v BN (Newcastle Crown Court) - Rape of a child under 13, rape, sexual assault, cruelty

R v BN (Newcastle Crown Court) – Rape of a child under 13, rape, sexual assault, cruelty

After 8 days in trial BN was acquitted of all 10 counts on the indictment. The case concerned very serious allegations including the rape of his biological daughter between the ages of 8 to 14 years, the rape of his wife over the course of their 20 year marriage and sexual abuse and cruelty against his 10 year old biological son involving serious physical assaults, the cutting of his face with a knife and being shot with a pellet gun. The case involved careful cross-examination of 4 young siblings (all using ABE interviews, s.28 recordings and intermediaries) including their mother and alleged IP. The case involved a large amount of third party material including social services, school, medical and police records. Fiona was praised by the Judge for her calm and efficient conduct of the case.

- R v MP (Newcastle Crown Court) – Rape and assault by penetration

After 5 days in trial MP was convicted of rape and assault by penetration in respect of offences involving his wife's best friend. MP was sentenced to 8 years and 9 months' custody.

- R v GM (Durham Crown Court) – Sexual assault

- R v CF (Teesside Magistrates Court)

Represented a man charged with intimidation under the Trade Union and Labour Relations (Consolidation) Act 1992. After submitting a lengthy skeleton argument and following legal argument the Crown was forced to offer no evidence. Enquiries subsequently undertaken in relation to a malicious prosecution argument.

Testimonials

"Your oral submissions are only enhanced by your written submissions and if your client hasn't seen the written document he should know that it has given him a chance he would not otherwise have had. When I came on the bench I was going to send him to prison. You have persuaded me to take a different course."

Sentencing Judge in s.20 wounding case

"You provided a great service for him. That was an exceptional mitigation."

Sentencing Judge in a sex case

"Brilliant work - well done."

Instructing solicitor following acquittals in a serious sex case

"An incredible result!! It was all down to you. You put in so much extra work (including buying the client lunch!) Well done and thank you very much."

Instructing solicitor following an acquittal in a burglary trial

"Fiona's guidance, advice, belief in me and reassurance over the last 12 months has been a pillar of hope for me throughout this ordeal. It fills me with relief that there is still a barrister who actually cares about people's freedom and wellbeing. Fiona's sincerity, honesty, knowledge of the law and tenacity will take her far. Fiona has done more for me off her own back than anyone ever has, and for that, I am forever grateful."

Client represented at his appeal against conviction without a solicitor (Direct Access) and on a pro-bono basis who was reconvicted

"Fiona's warmth and personable qualities to me before and after the case were very much appreciated. Fiona is a proficient and very effective barrister."

Client unanimously acquitted of sexually assaulting a child family member

"She is plainly a fighter."

Instructing solicitor

"Fiona is particularly adept at dealing with difficult clients with mental health difficulties, she is well liked by clients and is very much at ease with vulnerable clients."

Instructing solicitor

"Fiona gives every case her full attention and she has established herself as very reliable Counsel... she is incredibly hardworking."

Instructing solicitor

"Fiona was instructed as a noting junior in a very serious and complex conspiracy and I was highly impressed with her professional integrity, hard work ethic and high standards for client service."

Instructing solicitor following a two month brief in the Old Bailey
